White Aryan Resistance

1987

The Alpine Village story is a small island of humor in a sea of very real warfare.

Two years ago, four National Socialists were arrested at the Alpine Village, a Neo-German hashhouse that, at one time, was centrally located in a predominately White worker neighborhood.

They were asked to leave because they had the gall to wear small nickel-sized National Socialist Swastika pins on their suits. Since that time, the A.C.L.U. has filed suit against the restaurant for civil rights violations.

The Alpine Village restaurant for many years was a watering hole for a small but vocal racial nationalist community. In years past several April 20th birthdays were celebrated. About 1975, your editor chaired a meeting of the Crusaders with special guest Manfred Roeder. In all the events I attended at Alpine Village restaurant, the management was accommodating and courteous and quite possibly sympathetic.

Times have changed however, and now the neighborhoods of the area are more and more Third World in makeup. The Octoberfests that were once mostly Aryan are becoming more and more non-White.

White patrons of the past have died or moved on to Whiter pastures outside the Los Angeles cesspool.

The entire area begins to take on the degenerate appearance that all racially mixed areas take on. Add to this the ever increasing Jew presence and the equation is complete.

It is on this scene that Tom Metzger arrives to place a $250.00 down payment on a private banquet room for an April 20th birthday party. Like all good Capitalists, the lady in charge snapped up Metzger's $250.00 and wrote White Aryan Resistance into her log book.

Fifty days passed and then a letter arrives at W.A.R. offices with a check for $250.00 and a sorrowful letter from the owner of Alpine Village. The owner was called by a small-time Los Angeles Jew who claims to be leader of the Jewish Defense League while in reality is only able to muster three or four people on any occasion. As usual the Jew threatened to have a massive protest with a cast of thousands on Alpine Village property. With this the courageous Deutcher folded like a well cooked German noodle.

In fact, not only did he capitulate completely like a politician in the Weimar Republic, but he employed a crew of lawyers to get a temporary restraining order to keep vicious Tom Metzger out of his restaurant.

Metzger was then served with a temporary restraining order!

On the evening of April 20th, reports from the scene painted one of the most bizarre pictures ever imagined.

The restaurant parking lot had approximately seven police cars with several police patrolling the restaurant parking area. A police communications van and a police helicopter were in view. One half block to the east, California Highway Patrol units covered the offramps watching for wicked Nazis. One block further east there were assembled forty sheriffs deputies in full riot gear, along with several horses for riot control.

Inside the restaurant many tables were occupied by undercover police officers. Even an F.B.I. team was present taking pictures of suspected whatever.

At six o'clock a plane appeared overhead and began to circle. Behind the plane was a large sign. On the sign there was a message, "Happy Birthday Uncle Adolf!"

As you may guess, Jews shook their clenched fists at the sky and screamed "It's obscene!" Police scurried to and fro as if they expected an I.C.B.M. attack at any moment.

The local TV broadcasts headlined their news with "Nazi Alert". I wonder if a Nazi alert is like a smog alert? Stage 1, 2 or 3?

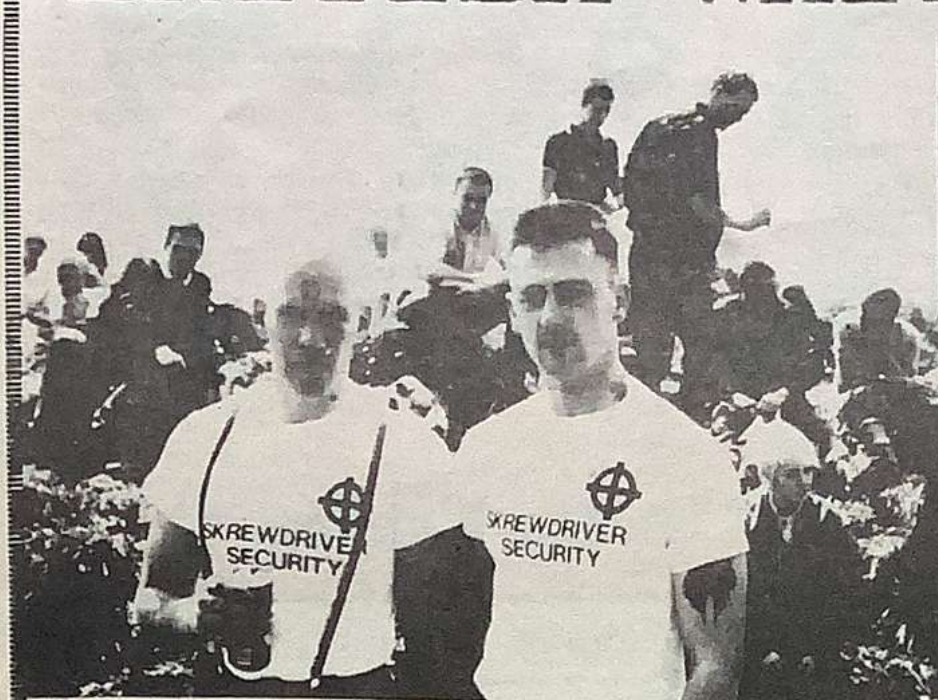

It would seem that the hysterical actions of the owner, the Jews, and ZOG boys combined to make this the most celebrated April 20th birthday party in California history.

Too bad I couldn't make it. I stayed home like a good boy.

BRITISH WHITE POWER ROCK

In honor of the recently celebrated St. George Day (England's holiday for its patron dragon-slayer), of April 1987, the National Front (NF) sponsored its annual "White Noise" rock festival in rural Halesworth, England.

Approximately 500 youthful skinheads, plus assorted British patriots young and old and Europeans from as far away as Hungary, attended the concert which featured ear-splitting White power rock music performed by four separate bands.

The most famous of those appearing, the band known as Skrewdriver, featuring singer-songwriter Ian Stuart, turned in a blazing set which included the dedication of a song to the men and women of White Aryan Resistance and director

Tom Metzger.

Skrewdriver was in top form despite the recent six month jail term Ian Stuart finished serving as a result of England's super-repressive, government-formented campaign to make British nationalism and race pride a major crime. Stuart was arrested after he and two other friends defended two White women against an attack by eight blacks and won the fight. The police told the Whites that since they were NF supporters "they (the Whites) must have started the fight."

Stuart's band turned in especially sizzling renditions of their hits, "White Power," "Free My Land," and "Back with a Bang." Throughout the performance enthusiastic youths shouted their approval, along with racial slogans.

Also sharing the bill with Skrewdriver was the French band, "Legion 88," hard-core NS fanatics from France who, despite singing in their native tongue, made their racial message clear enough where on this earth the White man may have a home where Aryan identity, heritage and roots are preserved from the soulless material-consumerism sweeping all races into one coffee-colored juggernaut, the better to hawk computer-to the assembled audience. Their title song ("Legion 88") along with "Skinheads," "Vaincoire" and "Terroristes" were executed with blazing speed and were warmly received by the English skins.

"Hey Bimbo. What we gonna do about these Skinheads?"

Rounding off the bill was "Vengeance," a skinhead band with a working class orientation who sported a female bass player, and the band "Sudden Impact," whose hauntingly bitter song about White women who date negroes (entitled "White Slegs") expressed perfectly the rage building under the surface of Britain's multi-racial society.

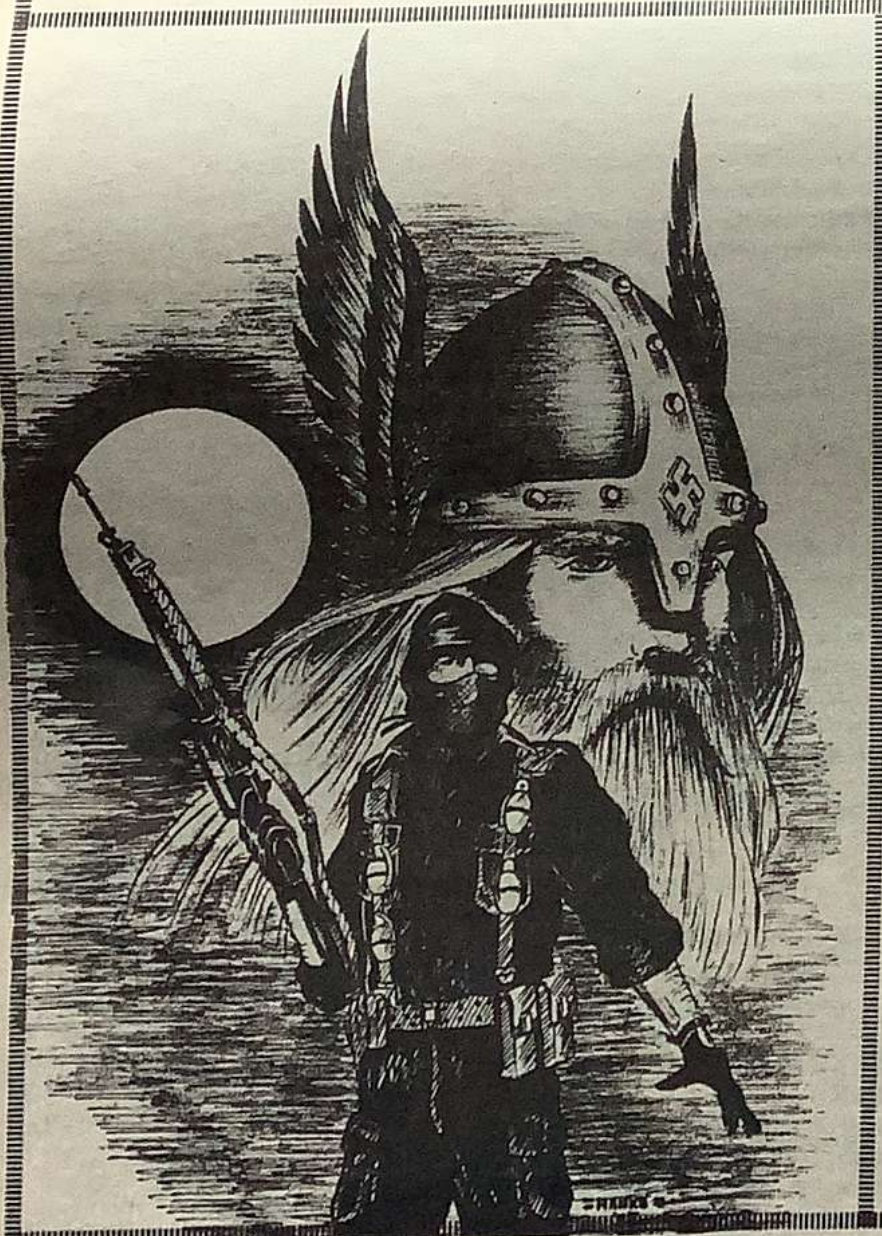

The five hundred or so White people in attendance were unabashedly racist and linked by a common tribal identity (the skinhead phenomenon). They represent the front-line resistance to the Third World invasion of the White ancestral homeland that is Britain. While other English Whites chat about "how awful the Blacks are," over tea, the skinheads are the warriors of Europe, giving a hot reception to those Third Worlders stupid enough to fall for the blandishments of the British ruling class and invade ancestral White homelands.

Ian Stuart and his friends aim to see to it that someized-coffee pots, stereos, CD's and other plastic junk to a simplified market. As Ian sings in "Blood and Honour": "Europe was never a puppet state—and never will be!"

Government repression against the alliance between capable White rock musicians and White racial philosophy is at an all-time high in Britain. The system greatly fears such a hook-up since the fatcats recognize the power of the music to inspire and influence youth (having used it to such deadly effect against the White race). Now that some forward-looking White youths have decided to get the White Pride message across with rock music, the establishment is in a panic. Stuart was jailed and now the latest victim is Kevin Turner, lead-singer for the skinhead band, "Skullhead." Turner has been sentenced to four years in prison on trumped-up charges. Write him your encouragement: Kevin Turner, Her Majesty's Prison-Acklington, Morpeth, Northumberland, England.

The St. George Day Skinhead, White Power Rock festival, was videotaped and those tapes are available by writing Wiswell Ruffin, P.O. Box 1449, Temecula, Calif. 92390.

White supremacist bands show rock's darker sides

Several gangs have been identified in Orange County, some reportedly receiving direct support from prison gang Aryan Brotherhood and the Sword Order, a group allegedly affiliated with the Klu Klux Klan.

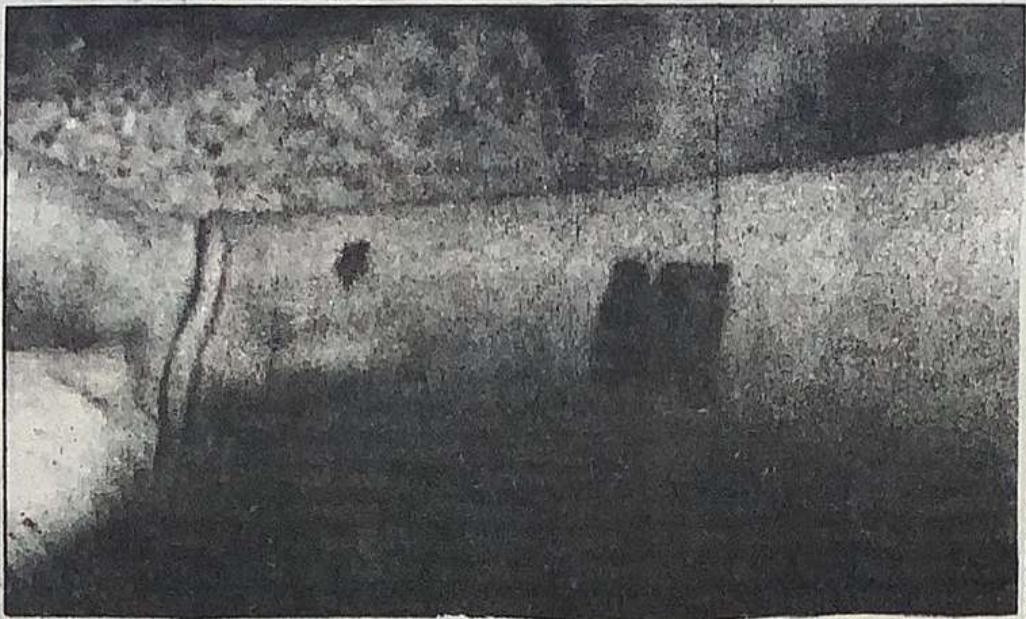

According to Zuorski, some of these skin gangs active in Orange County are The Clan, Gastapo, Blitzkrieg, The League and The Lads (originally Los Angeles Death squad before branching to OC), with several hundred gangs in the Los Angeles and Orange County areas. Not all skins or skin gangs are white supremacists, but police say that all are involved with violence innocent people are the target of.

Possibly the most active, violent and mobile white supremacist gang is Circle One, according to Shoe. Shoe is a member of Long Beach Suicidal Punks (LBSP) who are united with the Venice Suicidals.

Shoe claims that one of the reasons that LBSP formed was for protection from skins. The Suicidals are often the target of Circle One and other gangs because the LBSP is primarily of Mexican and and Samoan heritage. The fact that their "hood" includes Fender's International Ballroom (a common venue for skin bands) in downtown Long Beach, is probably of no help, either.

"But I don't worry (he pats a bulge in his pants) 'cause if this ain't working I got a piece, too. People f--- up with me they gonna die." Shoe is no 19.

Zuorski believes many of these people stay active well into their 20's, forming lifelong views. Many of the skins form close bonds with each other, having been through many of the same experiences, including being shunned by society, rejection by parents, time in jail or prison and often living on the streets. This bond is what often leads to the gangs.

You see them all over; many of the looks are the same as the punks of the late seventies. Often bold from the waist up, heavily tattooed and seen loitering, these people are becoming a major force to deal with, with seemingly pro-American views that others would label white supremacist or fascist. They are often violent and as they get older will become a political power to contend with. They are the girl next door, a fellow student or sibling.

"Huntington Beach has the biggest problem, of the white power, that is," says Sam Zuorski, a juvenile detective and youth gang specialist affiliated with the Costa Mesa Police Department.

Zuorski refers to the recent trend among many "skinhead" gangs to adopt neo-Nazi beliefs, often times becoming very vocal through violence to the point of advocating the killing of minorities.

Skinheads or "skins" are not the same as punks, but a branch off from them. Though not all skins or skin gangs are white supremacists they are tied together by the hard, brash and often "nationalistic" music, that is often derogatory of Jews, blacks, Mexicans and other "non-Aryan" groups.

"We are the working class, we believe in control and a better United States; the punks are for anarchy, f--- you and other outdated stuff like that,

NAZI NETS

On the flip side of political computing, there are a half dozen white supremacy BBSs spreading racism from the badlands around the U.S. The one I got into was the neo-Nazi White Aryan Resistance, or "WAR," BBS in California. The WAR BBS represents national socialism, its regulats professing both the overthrow of capitalist society and racial demarcation. They ascribe ideas of racial equality to corporations like Coca-Cola, hoping to solve marketing problems through racial uniformity: "The creation of a universal, coffee-colored race of consumers is the capitalist merchant's dream."

These neo-Nazis go on to explain that their BBS that "the number one enemies are the white race traitors who, as the pimps and fat cats of international finance, capitalism and corporatism, are selling us down the tubes in the interest of marketing strategy." They welcome any "non-Jewish white people," who share their views. One message from a user named Otto Skorzeny (Skorzeny was a Nazi storm trooper who rescued Mussolini in a daring raid at Gran Sasso in 1943) said: "Our tactics are working. More of our kindred are finding us."

And so it goes. Anybody can get into the WAR BBS, I logged in once as Ben Mussolini and again as Eva Braunschweiger, so if you need a good laugh, the WAR BBS number is 619-723-9996.

White women now have another excellent reason for avoiding Black men, literally like the plague. The January 12th edition of "U.S. News and World Report" described the case of a Black "Belgian" businessman, who has been spreading AIDS throughout the White community on two continents. Dr. Nathan Clumeck, a specialist in infectious diseases at St. Pierre Hospital in Brussels, has determined that this scourge recently had at least 12 sexual partners, five in Belgium and seven in Africa, all but one of whom were White, middle-class women.

None of these women were promiscuous, none used drugs, and all had only vaginal intercourse with Mr. Super Scourge, who must have sweet-talked them into it, perhaps by making them anxious to avoid looking "racist". So far nine of the 12 women have developed active AIDS in one form or another and some have begun to spread it to other men. Dr. Clumeck cautions that the necrotic Negro, who expired at the age of 40 in February 1986, probably infected other White women as well.

Consider that one out of 10 people in New York City has already been infected by the AIDS virus, according to recent (Dec. 1986) official estimates. Consider that the best German researcher now concludes that at least 75% of all those infected by the virus will die within seven years. Put it together, and you have 7 1/2% of all Gothamites dead within seven years, perhaps sooner.

Consider, too, that this is not a "Gay plague", but rather a "Gay/Black Plague." In almost every corner of the White world, it is Blacks, almost as much as homosexuals, who, by their substandard behavior, are actively spreading the disease to Whites.

It is now common knowledge that hundreds of millions will soon be dying of AIDS. The experts say so. Will these hundreds of millions be overwhelmingly Third Worlders or First Worlders as well? That depends on our actions in the next two to three years! The moment of action has arisen for our people.

In Europe especially, Black/White couples must be actively challenged on the streets: "Are you two married? Been to Africa recently, sir? Or New York City? Lady, stay with him and keep clear of all White men! Or esle!"

Isolate those walking time-bombs! Let them "die of embarrassment"! It's better than having Europe die.

And if you look like a fool to some today, what of it? Hindsight will prove you heroic. And you won't need to wait even five years to be fully justified.

EDITORIAL

On the run

For several years Los Angeles has been a virtual open range for J.D.L. terrorism. Tom Metzger had found no reliable resistance to the J.D.L. in Los Angeles. Rather than expend the energies of reliable soldiers from outside the Los Angeles area, Metzger simply encircled the Los Angeles area and left Los Angeles to itself.

By 1986, Irv Rubin, self-styled J.D.L. leader, had become so obnoxious that the White Aryan Resistance decided to neutralize his operation. The first act was to challenge a local gathering of (so-called) National Socialists to join in the operation. After that incident, it became clear that the present N.S. groupies were not up to the job. In fact, several are drug users, race-mixers and even police informants.

After a very few operations, Rubin's J.D.L. began to show severe signs of strain. On May 1st, 1986 the last great comeback for the J.D.L. was planned. It was to follow in W.A.R. members and others to the Los Angeles Train Station for an attack. This turned out to be Rubin's final Waterloo. His hastily recruited mercenaries were beaten soundly, as Irv Rubin fled the area in panic.

Some interesting facts on Rubin's J.D.L. First, all New York City J.D.L. chapters recognize Victor Vancier as the National Chairman of the J.D.L., not Rubin. These New York chapters include Steve Goldstein of Brooklyn J.D.L., Jay Cohen of Queens J.D.L., Simcha Rabinowitz of Manhattan J.D.L., Steve Silver of Bronx J.D.L. and Ronnie Ben Aron of Staten Island J.D.L.; all other J.D.L. chapters around the country recognize Victor Vancier as their National leader, including Ken Sidman of Boston J.D.L., Ed Solomon of Philadelphia J.D.L., Irwin Block of Florida J.D.L., Moishe Yano of Long Island J.D.L. etc. Rubin speaks for a very small gang in Los Angeles with a literal handful of about four active members. Rubin keeps repeating the publicly refuted myth that Rabbi Meir Kahane appointed him National Chairman. Considering the fact that Rubin and his handful of followers have condemned Kahane for allegedly being too moderate, this is an odd claim for Rubin to make. Rubin has been expelled from the J.D.L. because of his alleged cowardice.

ZOG WATCH

Tyrants in Washington have begun a futile effort to hide their failures in foreign policy, their failures in a farm policy, an industrial policy and a social policy.

The final stages of a Capitalist conspiracy are now unfolding. The recent Contra-gate is just a small glimpse at a conspiracy that has spanned at least twenty years. That conspiracy began with the Nixon agreement with Lansky's Jew controlled crime syndicate.

Various government officials and military have laid down in bed with organized crime. This conspiracy reaches into the highest levels of government. It includes murder, assassination, and drug running on a massive scale. Congress and the Senate are too corrupt and stupid to expose this conspiracy for what it is. A gang of conspirators who, among other things, assassinated President Kennedy because he failed to deliver back Cuba as a Jew-crime kingdom that would have netted billions to Lansky and his cohorts.

These shadowy figures have deposited hundreds of millions of drug money made primarily in Cambodia during the 1960's and 1970's into banks in Australia, Switzerland and other countries. This money has been used for a corporate army to finance world wide violence against those who would interfere with the corporate rape of the nations.

One would ask what this has to do with the present ignominious crusade by the same cabal against White separatists nationwide.

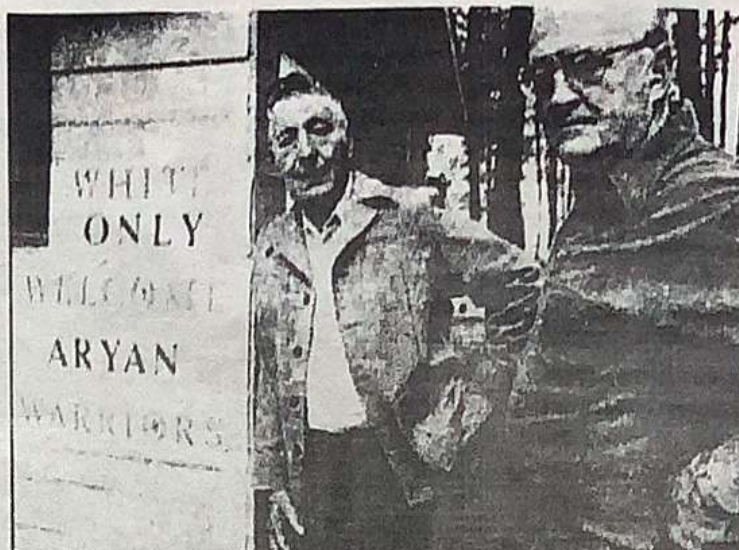

The answer is very simple. These outlaws who are masked in the garments of respectability will tolerate no activity that might lead to the destabilizing of their dirty game.

Since White separatists do not base their struggle on greed and profit, but on racial and cultural considerations, they must be smashed. Believe me if White separatists, racial socialists, or National Socialist ideals fit the plan of these vermin, they would be the first to finance this movement.

The Conservative right has fallen hook, line and sinker for the scam of fighting Communism which is a euphemism for the continuation of state feudalism.

The Conservative right has become as dangerous to our ideals as the Marxist movement. For what is Marxism but a perversion of healthy racial socialism ala Jew Karl Marx?

The Soviet Union today is State Capitalism guided yet by Jew influence. The day Russia throws off this Jew influence is the day the Dr. Strangeloves of this National Counting House will launch the missiles.

Our movement is revolutionary not by choice, but because there is no alternative. To remain a campfollower of the right wing only brings on faster the ultimate destruction of our racially conscious Aryan community. The Marxist left is but a stepchild of Monopolists.

Many of us took the long slow path through the right wing only to find it bankrupt and bought. Some have made comfortable livings adhering to that line, these we call merchants. The merchants are still among us and must be encouraged to retire! The coming generation will have no more patience with their shadow boxing. Racial Socialists or National Socialists of this era are already on the edges of the ring. Many have already entered the ring and wage the good fight.

Those that become discouraged at the imprisonment of fellow White racists should take heart in the fact that these are only skirmishes or preliminary fights. It was the same in early America and many men and women suffered at the hands of the King's men for decades before final victory.

Richard Butler, Robert Miles and many more now feel the wrath of the great and powerful Oz. But as in the story of the Wizard of Oz, the fighters will ultimately tear the curtain away that exposes the weak and cowardly oligarchy that sit on the Potomac and in the counting houses of Wall Street.

And at that time, there will be a wailing and gnashing of teeth such as North America has never experienced.

In the meantime, visit and write political prisoners. Help their families and continue the struggle!

LETTERS

Dear Sir:

I have been arrested twice in the past few months and have been incarcerated twice to ZOG and I am still fighting the good fight for Truth and Justice and Mercy. We are a Constitutional Republic founded on bravery of WHITE PATRIOTS OF THE PAST!

In ZOG'S OPERATION CLEAN SWEEP four of us have been selected for persecution by the "enemy" to frighten the rest of the citizenry on the islands to pay their damnable "Income Tax" to the max and to bow down to the Jew god BAAL. Credit is debt is Slavery and our government of the Jewnighted States of Usury has sold all of us down the river of no return!

Please keep me informed and updated as to the welfare of our great White leaders and what ZOG is trying to do to them. We are a nation of real fighting White people, I hope and not a nation of Sheeple!

We are in the end times of our Constitutional Republic and we must go underground and organize for a real attempt to restore our Constitution and live a life of real Life, Liberty, and the real Pursuit of Happiness under Common Law!

I am studying to the max Barrister's Law which is the law in which we can truly have the Home of the Brave and the Land of the Free. If a man does not work, he does not eat! This is the real law of the jungle and we must relearn this! I remain.

Yours for a Whiter and brighter world,

Dear Mr. Metzger,

I read your editorial, "The Demise of Revisionism, Inc.," with great interest because I served for nearly four years on the Editorial Advisory Committee of the Journal of Historical Review.

The dimensions of the Institute of Historical Review catastrophe were recently illustrated to me once more by a letter published in a New Brunswick newspaper, the

I am an officer in the United States Army, stationed in the Federal Republic of Germany. Supposedly, the American military mission over here is to keep Soviet Communism out of Western Europe and to protect Western Civilization. I say supposedly. In actuality, I feel our real purpose over here is to screw Europe up, Germany in particular and I find it terribly revolting.

I feel that the American military over here is more concerned with forcing racial inter-mixing upon White women in the Army and upon our European kin-folk, which adds up to nothing but our own destruction. Due to the American military presence, we are now building McDonalds, Pizza Huts, Wendy's etc. all over Europe which can, in the long run, only destroy many of the pleasant aspects of European society. Thus, American policy in Europe is nothing more than setting the example for racial assimilation and the establishment of fast food joints for a generic society. We are doing this to the cradle of our own heritage and civilization and I am ashamed. Worse yet, our military has now reached such lows, that my speaking on behalf of my race, culture, heritage, and identity, is now treated as criminal. To be proud of White power, strength, unity, and identity, which is a normal, natural thing in the ways of life, is treated by the military upper echelon, government officials and media as diabolically wrong. Our supposed leaders have become so far removed from the reality of God's Law and Natural Law that in their ignorance, or connivance, they substitute Man's Law, Material Law, as they see fit, with total disregard for the Republic that our Founding Fathers established. Our military, for instance, has adopted the false policy of "Equal Opportunity" which does nothing but negate all the attributes of the White race, while aiding and abetting all non-Whites. Equal Opportunity in the military is nothing more than another method of degrading and debasing the White male into subservient submission to foolish, destructive, and self-defeating ideology. Equal Opportunity is a falsehood. In the ways of life, there is no such thing. An example of what I am talking about is the comparison of White Civilization versus Black Civilization. There is no comparison. It is totally one-sided. Nearly every great accomplishment or historical milestone has been done by members of the White race. The establishment of the American Republic was built by and for those of European descent, our ancestors, to be carried on and cherished by us, their descendants. Yet today, our own military, that which was developed by our people to protect our Republic, now preaches a false ideology of Equal Opportunity, an ideology that promotes race-mixing, the glorification of non-Whites, and an obsession with nurturing/promoting those who do not deserve it. The American military today sponsors Black History Month, Hispanic History Week, Martin Luther King's Birthday, and tributes to the Asians as well. But interestingly enough, there are no tributes to the endless contributions and blood, sweat and tears shed by our people for the perpetuation of everything we cherish. If the truth were to be told, the contributions of the White race to the world: artistically, militarily, intellectually, and economically, would so dwarf all the other races combined, that the military would have to officially acknowledge the existence of Natural Law and White Supremacy, which under Equal Opportunity it will not do. So in effect, those who desire to destroy us maintain an endless propaganda barrage aimed at our people as a means of weakening them for the end result, the extermination of the White race.

Economically and politically, our Founding Fathers established a vibrant, strong republic, by and for the White race. It was not established by and for non-Whites, though today they live off of the fruits of the labor of our ancestors, as well as ourselves. Nonetheless, the American left-wing increasingly manipulates the facts as stated by our greatest leaders and puts out misinformation to our young and those of our own people who have not studied their own history. As a result we are being led down the path of total destruction; toward anti-Christian, Jewish-Bolshevism. This I firmly believe. As a means of destroying White America, the Jewish-backed communists, wearing the mask of the concerned citizen for international human rights, has already accomplished destroying much of what made the American military so awesomely powerful. It is no longer the bastion of White male dominance and protective of what was important to the White male, home and family. Today's military is now a mish-mash of everything and, quite frankly, stands for nothing but a phony philosophy of Equal Opportunity where unemployed non-Whites can get a job. Therefore, hard earned tax money goes toward supporting an Army, for instance, that is close to fifty percent Black, in which we feed, cloth, and pay a race of half-wits for what? To protect us, our families, our culture, heritage, identity and way of life from the Russians? In the meantime, the remainder of our tax money goes overseas to Third World Countries to support basically communist causes. Since World War II we have witnessed a steady stream of our wealth being drained from our shores to support hopeless causes and hostile governments. Meanwhile, there is no return on our outgoing revenue. It is a one-way street, aimed at bankrupting the majority of White Americans and accustoming us to a lower and artificial, standard of living, all of which runs exactly opposite of what was intended by our Founding Fathers. This is coupled with a media blitz that these policies are on behalf of humanity, when a study of the facts shows that in reality it only benefits a very select, hostile few.

Over the years our people have been falsely conditioned to be materialistic and self-indulgent as a means of truly practicing what America is all about. The safe-guarding and upholding of individual rights, freedom of speech, press, religion, etc. has been twisted and warped to the point that today freedom of speech and press applies only if one talks about international human rights, bad-mouths White culture, interests, and identity; spending money, and being damn glad the rest of one's earnings go to support the likes of Chad, the Central African Republic, Red China, or the Soviet Union, to name but a miniscule few. Freedom of religion today means freedom to not be religious or act in a moral fashion, such as the emphasis on humanism as opposed to belief in God and doing good and the glorification of homosexuality as normal living, or the right of the mother to choose to abort her baby, which horrifyingly enough is high among the White race and low among the other races. Our Founding Fathers never intended the establishment of this type of society. Who in their right mind could believe such a thing? Only a fool; however, we apparently have many fools in our military and society. That for which our nation was founded and the documents such as the original Constitution, without all of the amendments, which safeguarded our society, was to protect the common good of the community, a White Christian community at that.

I am writing to you because I am fed up with the distortion and destruction of everything I was raised to believe in and cherish. I am tired of all things I hold sacred being trampled upon. I will not spit on my whole life, nor will I live a lie, yet that is what I am told to do. I refuse to watch my people, and possibly someday my family, be reduced to decadence, degeneracy, immorality, and weakness, nor watch the money I have earned be wasted on tax programs that are hostile to my family, my race, and national institutions by a morally bankrupt government, a government that has completely deviated away from that for which it was intended.

I am interested in joining your organization or if that is not possible, at least staying in touch. I would like to add that I still have one more year left on my tour in Europe, as of this writing, before returning to the United States. I would only ask that when you write back that the envelope not have any identifying marks, as my current position would be jeopardized. As you are well aware, there are many hostile eyes and ears everywhere. I hope to meet with you personally when I get back to the States. All for now. Keep up the good work.

She was always there when I needed her advise, but she wasn't my wife.

She was always there when we needed research, but she wasn't a historian.

She was always there when we needed a hostess, but she wasn't Amy Vanderbilt.

She was always willing to work long hours, but she wasn't a trade union official.

She was always ready to pass the word along, but she wasn't Paul Revere.

She was always a soldier but never fired a shot.

She was Lois Miller and she was as dedicated as any trooper could be. For over 10 years, Mrs. Miller did the lion's share of our paper construction and many other jobs that helped us progress forward. Lois has died and we all feel a great loss; a vacuum that will not soon be filled.

MOVING TOWARD RACIAL AND ETHNIC NATIONALISM

St. John "Telegraph Journal" of March 4th. Even the writer of the letter in far-away New Brunswick, an associate professor of history at the University of New Brunswick, used the results - or putative results - of the Marmelstein settlement to claim that the Zionist Extermination Thesis was proved to be correct by the terms of the settlement. By the way, I would bet a nickel to a hole in a doughnut that that associate has never read a serious book on the refutation of the Extermination Thesis, such as those by Butz, Staglich, Sanning or even just my propaedeutic book, the "Holocaust/120 Questions and Answers" (1983).

You are quite correct in pointing out that part of the IHR tragedy lies in the tremendous amount of money that was absorbed by the IHR and thus not received by organizations which probably could have used it far more effectively. I would estimate that hundreds or even thousands of sincere people have donated much the better part of a million dollars to the IHR since 1980..

I recall a letter I received several years ago from a very prominent revisionistic historian who teaches in a distinguished university in Illinois. He pointed out the superfluity of the $50,000 reward offer and expressed the opinion that anyone who questions the Extermination Thesis is bound to draw plenty of attention without such a reward.

Perhaps the IHR would have been far more effective if genuine scholars would have been running it instead of men who were essentially journalists.

The great tragedy of the situation does not lie primarily in the suspension of some of the activities of the IHR or even the huge sums of money used up by it. The failure of the IHR to defend itself before a court of law (as did Ernst Zundel with some sensational successes) is a national tragedy because the Zionist Extermination thesis (the "Holocaust" mythology) has been used to pervert our national defense and foreign policies. It has been used to favor the Jewish state in Palestine to such an extent that the whole Islamic world has come to hate us Americans, and understandably so. It has been used to obscure the Communist menace by denigrating National Socialist Germany, which held out heroically against the great military power of the Bolsheviks for nearly four years. It has been used to debilitate the psychological defenses of Aryans by instilling guilt feelings in them with regard to Jews, who now even claim that Americans did not do enough to rescue them during World War II.

In spite of the present plight of historical revisionism, there are some consoling circumstances. There are other organizations and periodicals which can and do carry on the work of refuting the Extermination Thesis and other Zionist propaganda lies. Historical revisionism neither began with the Institute of Historical Review nor will it end with its demise, whenever that might take place.

Respectfully yours,

Charles E. Weber, Ph.D.
Chairman, Committee for the Reexamination of the History of the Second World War.

Dear Mr. Jewell,

Will try to make a quick response to your letter. I am enclosing the James Family tree. Also, in the book "Jesse James was His Name" by William A. Seattle, Jr., University of Missouri Press, you can find documentation on the fact that the James and Youngers were not cousins. There are many, many books on the James, but the above mentioned book seems to me to be the most factual. Also, on page 48 of the same book, it mentions the "bandits were masked as Ku Klux Klansmen." Not a definitive statement, but that, along with the fact of their close involvement with Missouri's Grand Dragon General Jo Shelby, makes one hell of a circumstantial case for the James - Youngers gang being, at some point KKK. This was in reference to the July 21, 1873 Council Bluffs, Iowa train robbery.

I am impressed by your knowledge of your name. My last name is purely an American appellation. My first ancestor to come from Holland in the latter 1600's was named Von Pelt. The stove used for ballast in the ship was used to build his house in "New Amsterdam" which was, in 1949, and I suppose still is, under control and owned by the Daughters of the American Revolution. He wished to return to Holland but was refused permission by the Dutch Governor. Due to British atrocities against Dutch settlers, he decided to fight back. He brought guns illegally from British soldiers and formed a group called "Sworn to Withhold Allegiance to Invading Monarchs". If these Dutch were stopped, they were to say that the letters SWAIM was their family name which was one letter away from the English name SWAIN thus purporting to be English. Some, but not all, of his descendants kept the SWAIM name. Some of his descendants moved down to North Carolina and met up with James Lamb and his family. Lamb was one of the 900 Scottish rebel prisoners shipped in chains to America after the collapse of the 1745-1746 "Bonnie Prince Charlie". Charles Edward Stuarts lied to capture the British throne. The Battle of Culloden marked the collapse of the revolution. The Swaim and the Lamb families intermarried. In fact clear up until this century and numerous times way back when. But anyway my ancestors fought in the American revolution; my great great grandfather was a North Carolina Confederate 1st LT. His son, my great grandfather, was a Confederate Sgt. who heard of some great land in Mo. while in the Yankee Ft. Delaware prison. After the war, he went back to North Carolina, was a member of the Klan, and after the Klan Acts, moved to Mo. with a lot of his family and friends. Some of his family settled in Kansas but he wouldn't live in a "Yankee state". And so here I am. Incidentally, the author William Sydney Porter "O'Henry" whose mother was a Swaim, played Ku Klux Klan as a boy with his friends in Greensboro. His story the "Cisco Kid" was about a man who shot Mexicans for fun to watch them die. Quite unlike the Hollywood version. Actually my ancestry seems to be Dutch, Scottish, English and German. By the way, with a Celtic name some of your ancestors may have fought with King Arthur, now a proven historical figure and not just a legend.

Again, my deepest respect and thanks for your articles. Also, I have the deepest respect for Mr. Metzger for two reasons. His work for the folk and his ability to make a living in the electronic servicing industry.

PHONE POWER

The White Aryan Resistance utilizes the telephone for its computer network, phone message machines and standard communications.

The power of the modern day telephone is tremendous and WAR is proud to announce that a highly involved telephone experiment working out of Sacramento, California was recently concluded as extremely successful.

What is truly interesting is that anyone may utilize the methods about to be presented here at virtually no financial cost, while simultaneously giving the White Movement a massive increase in intelligence information, potential and power...let's put our Aryan technology to work for the race that created it.

The experiment was titled "Dial a Live Racist" in which the phone number was made available to anyone in America who decided to call and speak to a "Live Racist".

Naturally the "Live Racist" was not always available and a phone message machine took several calls.

However, when the "Live Racist" was available scores of calls were received day and night, seven days a week and, believe it or not, nine out of ten calls were on our side.

Many of the callers simply enjoyed the novelty of being able to speak to a fellow Aryan Racist.

Several others called to find out more about the Movement or wanted to know if there was a local P.O. Box that they could contact in their area.

Many were surprised to discover that there was an active organization right in their home town.

New potential recruits who may never have corresponded by mail used the easy convenience to dial a "Live Racist" and were encouraged by phone to write our P.O. Box after discovering more about our Movement through the best medium possible-direct vocal communication and conversation.

The White Aryan Resistance co-operating with the Aryan Youth Movement took a real step forward and it payed off by opening new channels of communication in the Movement.

YANKEE DOODLE

YANKEE DOODLE

by John Jewell

'copr' 1987 Jewell/WAR

The name "Yankee" simply means "Johnny". It derives from an old Dutch nickname for John. The latter in Dutch is Jan (pronounced "Yan"), and the nickname was "Jantje" or "Janke" ("little John" or "Johnny", pronounced "Yanky"). Essentially it meant a clever, stubborn and very earthy farmer or peasant - the "Til Eulenspiegel" type, a "Boor's son" (farmers son) who ran circles around the greedy rich and powerful, and later the arrogant Jesuits during the Spanish occupation and Inquisition in the Lowlands (Dutch War of Independence 1568-1648). In time, however, a "Yankee" came also to mean a crafty, tight-fisted, thin-lipped, squint-eyed, squareheaded merchant.

The Dutch and Flemish had a harvest song in the 1400's, in which they sang "Janke dudel dudel dum". It went to England with Dutch and Flemish settlers in that country and eventually became a nursery rhyme. In the 1600's, during the English Civil War or "Puritan Revolution" (also called the "Great Rebellion" or "Usurpation"), the Royalist Cavaliers used the song to mock their rebel enemies. The Cavaliers wore long, flowing hair, great plumed hats, and flamboyant Italian-style clothing. The Puritans, in contrast, had close-cropped hair (the "Roundheads") and plain clothing. They were despised by the Royalists as being ignorant farmers, upstart landed gentry, city merchants, artisans, mechanics, laborers, and evicted tenant farmers forced into the Gin Row slums of the cities. The Royalists called them "Yankeys" and sang a satirical song based on the old nursery rhyme. The Puritan commander, Oliver Cromwell, was named the chief "Yankey" and the song went: "Yankey Doodle came to town/ upon a Kentish pony. He stuck a feather in his cap/ and called it macaroni!"

"Macaroni" was a multiple-pun. First of all, it was an Italian word and implied that the country bumpkin was trying to ape the flashing Italian dress of the Cavaliers. (A class of young men, the "exquisites", who were sons of the rich and traveled widely in Europe and affected continental tastes and fashions, became known as "macaronis", which meant a fop or "dandy".) There was also a strong sexual connotation. Italian pasta was new to England, and the cooked wet macaroni (especially the larger rigatoni and manicotti) looked like a limp, expended male member. Italy was, of course, the land of love and licentiousness. Moreover, the word was similar to the Romance languages' word for "pimp": macareau (hence the negro "mac-man"). The word "doodle" (like "tootle") also had a sexual inference, as did "yank" or "wank". This all relates to the familiar verse: "Yankee Doodle keep it up, Yankee Doodle dandy. Mind the music and the step, And with the girls be handy!" (In other words, Yankee Doodle Dandy was living it up in a bawdy-house).

Well, there's more than one way to win a war. The revolutionary "New Model Army" and Cromwell's "Ironsides" crushed the Royalists and established a parliamentary republic. (They also beheaded King Charles the First). But the new "Commonwealth" (infiltrated by Jews from Amsterdam and Lisbon) degenerated into a military dictatorship, bankrupted, and was overthrown by a counter-revolution in 1659. (The degenerate upper classes of the restored monarchy were also financed by Jews).

British troops were sent to America twice in this period: to suppress the Dutch colonists of the New Netherlands (New York, New Jersey, Delaware) in 1664-1667, and to smash the Virginia farmers, freemen laborers, and indentured White "bond-slaves" of Bacon's Rebellion in 1676. The song was likely brought along and especially used against the recalcitrant Knickerbocker Dutch "Yankeys" of New Amsterdam. (In turn, the New York Dutch called the New England Puritans the "Yankeys"). A century later, during the French and Indian War of 1754-1763, the British regular soldiers sang the song to jibe at the shabby militia-men of the American colonies. The British soldiery sang it through the continued British occupation leading up to the American Revolution. The song became especially widespread in the opening years of the War of Independence (1775-1783), as the British and the local American Tories (Loyalists) derided the ragged rebels.

The American revolutionaries turned the song around, coming up with radical verses. In the new version a young boy who joins the rebels with his father tries to describe all the wonders of the revolutionary encampment. "Father and I went down to camp, Along with Captain Gooding. And there we saw the men and boys, As thick as hasty pudding! And there was Colonel Washington, upon a slapping stallion, A-giving orders to his men, There must a-been a million! And there I saw a swamping gun...makes a noise like father's gun, Only a nation louder!"

American forces "tootled" the tune on pipes and drums as the British regulars, the Tory "loyalists", and the Hessian (German) mercenaries surrendered to the revolutionaries at Yorktown in 1781. A British band played: "The World Turned Upside Down."

After the war, Americans quickly forgot the rebel words and reverted to the derisive British version - down to this day. An silly words they are indeed for America's unofficial National Anthem.

As for "Yankee": the name at first meant a New Englander. This Yankee came in two types. The first was the "verdant", loutish, and naive country bumpkin, "Johnathan Ploughboy", a "full-blooded Yankey" whose natural bravery could raise him from contemptible ignorance to the heights of "Yankee Hero" - as in the revolutionary days of the "Sons of Liberty", the Minutemen, and the "Continental", and afterwards, in Daniel Shay's Rebellion of Western Massachusetts farmers against the Boston rich in 1786-1787.

The second was the "Yankee Peddler": the clever, cunning, crafty, canny, coldly calculating merchant and rich farmer: the wily and swindling trader, banker, and sea-merchant (dealing in "Yankee fancies", "Yankee Dollars", and rum, nigger slaves, and Moby Dick whales aboard swift "Yankee Clippers"). Meanwhile, the British tended to describe all Americans as "Yankies", who they parodied as their simple, rustic "Brother Jonathan".

With the extension of Northern migration to the Midwest, Ohio became known as the "Yankee State". Invaded by Northern commerce and the attacks of New England abolitionists, Southerners below the Mason-Dixon Line began to refer to all Northerners as "Yankees" and the North as "Yankee-land". (Of course, in those days pro-Southern sentiment extended not only through Missouri and Kentucky, Maryland and Delaware, but also southern Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and portions of New Jersey and New York).

The old Puritan "Yankee", like the Protestant Dutch farmer before him, had at least stressed the importance of socially useful work, the community, and a higher religious obligation. But what developed was the "New Yankee", especially in the expanding hucksterism of America of 1820-1860, as the new nation clawed its way from Atlantic to Pacific. Like the grasping Dutch merchants and bankers of Amsterdam in olden times, the only goal for the "New Yankee" in America was self-advancement and capitalist money-making in an amoral and secular society masquerading in the hysterical baptist-revivalism of the time ("Calvinism" run amok). The epitome of this Yankee was the circus freak tout P.T. Barnum: "There's a sucker born every minute."

The American Civil War (1861-1865) and postwar occupation of the South solidified the term "Yankee" for the Federal oppressor ("Damn Yankees"). In the Age of Big Business, the Robber Barons, and "Big Stick" Imperialism abroad, the Yankee became indelibly linked to the cartoon figure of Uncle Sam (the ultimate avuncular con-man: "I Want You!").

In Europe and Latin America, all White Americans were referred to as Yankees or "Yanquis". The name stuck. It is seldom meant as a compliment, despite the myths America love to live by ("Cuba si! Yanqui no!"). Nor should it be...

"Over there..spread the word..the Yanks are coming!..And we won't come back til its over, over there!"

"I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy, A Yankee Do-Do-Do-Or-Die! A real live nephew of my Uncle Sam, Born on the Fourth of July!"

"The trouble with the Yanks is that they're over-paid, over-sexed, and over here."

Or haven't you noticed that Uncle Sam now has a kike-nose?

METZGER BLASTS L.A. COURT

"For over three years, the defendants before the court have struggled in numerous courts of the prosecution to gain recognition of basic constitutional rights. This struggle has been a costly and dangerous trip through the Los Angeles version of 'L.A. Law.' The defendants are well aware of the constitutional issues at hand; however, it seems neither Municipal nor Superior courts are sensitive to these issues.

The prosecutor has raised the issue that several defendants have raised the charges to felony. The prosecutor adds that this is a tactic to stall or evade the process. This, of course, is not true. The defendants, having little faith in the protection of their civil and constitutional rights in Municipal court, chose the more dangerous path of a felony so as to gain a preliminary hearing and the protection of their constitutional rights.

After several weeks, it is obvious that constitutional issues somehow have been hermetically sealed outside this courtroom. During that period, a picture has been painted, by partially purjured testimony, of berserkers running through the countryside with pockets stuffed with matches just dying to burn something to the ground. The facts show a much different picture.

WERE WE DREAMING

by James Mason 1986

Those who are able to trace their roots in the racist movement back to the Sixties may well find themselves these days asking "Were we dreaming all that?"

Not the part about the integrationist and liberal threats against the final stage of American life and society, before even that was washed away in the Seventies. We knew and still know that it was real enough. We saw it and tried to awaken others in order to stop it. But it was no use. We know we weren't dreaming that because all of the worst things our most radical prophets of those days warned against, and a lot more, have all become real and are facts of everyday life now.

Not the things which our more learned philosophers and researchers and scholars revealed to us in hundreds of privately printed, narrowly distributed books and pamphlets. Those were not figments of anyone's imagination, nor were they deliberate lies designed to induce "hatred" toward anyone. None of that was dream material. If anything, it was and is the informational, intellectual missing link, the only means by which the otherwise incomprehensible gap between "official" governmental promise and performance can be understood and explained.

What seems like a dream today are all those large and active organizations which existed across the country in those days, sworn to fight the evil and the terror that has since engulfed the nation. We remember them, but we wonder now where did they go? The racist leaders whose names were household words in those days; the solid centers of organization where we could go, not only for fellowship, but in order to actively participate in the fight; the wide and colorful spectrum of literature and publications designed for all levels of the society; our physical presence and effect being felt in local elections, all areas of the media, in the street in direct clash with the enemy's front line hoods; our own gatherings, ceremonies, demonstrations which gave a sense of community and oneness.

The only way that we have to prove to any newcomer today that none of this was a dream is to produce our old scrapbooks and photo albums for their inspection. For if we didn't have those to fall back on, if what was demanded was the living achievement of all that as proof, then we'd have absolutely no means of establishing any part of it as anything more than a fairy tale.

But, it was real - all of the hard work, electrified energy, super human sacrifice, constant struggle, unceasing effort, the pain, the elation, the fear, the fun, the plans and the hopes, the faith and the promise. They were all real. They were real because we made them real. They were part of us and we were part of them. They were alive because we gave them part of our life. We gave wholeheartedly and were quite prepared to die (as some of us did.) We did not doubt, we did not question. We worked and we fought. And as long as we did that it was all very real. The enemy knew it. We had something wonderful. Something alive which not only stood in defiance of the World Enemy, it functioned and took action against that same enemy - no matter in how small a way - and was in fact impervious to the enemy's blows - no matter how severe.

Names aren't important. Find a movement veteran and he will have shared all these same impressions and experiences. This is the final proof that it was, after all, one movement, one cause. That it has fallen upon such sad and hard times as we find today can only be ascribed to too few of us then seeing the nature of it as it was and too many of us placing all the emphasis on the various means toward an end rather than upon the end itself.

Apart from events moving on and leaving a narrow strategy and ideology behind, what destroyed all that had been built up to that time, that is, the early Seventies, was a turning inward of an essentially second-string of movement leaders. Inward and ultimately against one another. If your battle is against the real enemy, the system, and for the only thing worth fighting for, the Race, then you welcome all the help you can get. But if your vision is to create something artificial, to enhance your own ego, then the suspicions and the quarrels become endless. Such was the fate of the post World War II effort at movement organizing in this country: GONE.

Let us hope that gone along with it are also the seeds inherent for self-destruction.

I'd like to see it happen again. I'd like to see it rise again. There is no reason why not. There is nothing to stop it. System opposition is not only meaningless, it is to be expected. Besides, Big Brother has never been in worse repute with his own subjects than he is today. Apathetic and brainwashed masses are meaningless. If we get our strategies, our programs and ideologies worked out and present them effectively and intelligently, then anyone with any soundness or worth left will be drawn to us. The current monopoly the enemy has in the streets - which we gave him - will have to be broken. There is nothing to compare with showing people the strength of fighting. In all truth, things are easier now than they were then. Despite a System shift toward conservatism, things in this country are not so smug, not so nice and tidy as they were twenty or thirty years ago. America, as it was known, "tolerance" and "brotherhood" and all that crap is now only a facade held together by a very rickety economic put-on.

Provide something that looks, sounds, feels and is real and you will find that you are going places fast. The key - as always - is hard work. But it has to be hard work applied in the right direction. If there is to be any hate directed anywhere, then let it be toward the system itself. Go always to the root cause and never allow yourself to be sidetracked with mere symptoms. Never doubt or fear regarding our having right on our side. But in the real world struggle with all the minions and forces of the Beast System, all the moral and historic right in the world plus fifty cents will buy you a cup of coffee. Being ultimately smarter and tougher than your opponent is the only thing that matters. Stay off matters of history and philosophy. Focus on practical matters, on providing real solutions to real problems. Be real! Act real, think real and talk real. You'll be received and treated as real. And you'll achieve real results!

The idea is not to resurrect that which is dead. And I refer only to former means toward the same end which has never changed. Means, images, symbols, forms fashioned by man to serve the moment, are not what we are dedicating ourselves to. Watch out for this, as it is a fatal trap. The idea is to break and completely erase all trace of alien control and influence over our people and to establish new traditions (not re-establish old ones) that are in line with their upward advance.

With that firmly in mind and with all our efforts of the future directed along that course, then twenty years hence, as we look back, we may not wonder what became of better days, but we may feel it under our feet as the cornerstone that lead to unheard of achievement and greatness.

Neonazis in London: „Wir bieten Hilfe an und können mit Hilfe rechnen“

AIDS CALLED SPORTS PROBLEM

Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome will be the next crisis for American sports as it follows recruits from lower-class, predominantly black sectors of society, a sociologist said.

Harry Edwards, a sociologist at the University of California at Berkeley, said AIDS is spreading fastest in lower-class black areas where the majority of athletes for football and basketball are recruited.

Speaking at the 24th Public Affairs Symposium at Dickinson College, Edwards said 25 percent of all AIDS cases are among blacks, 50 percent of all women with AIDS are black and 60 percent of all children with AIDS are black.

Among the causes, he said, are intravenous drug use, sexual promiscuity, prostitution and the release of prisoners into the black community.

Blacks receive 55 percent of Division I college basketball scholarships, and in some conferences, the figure is as high as 70 percent. Forty percent Division I football scholarships are awarded to blacks and in some conferences the figure is as high as 70 percent, Edwards said.

A leader of protests at the 1968 Olympics against the exploitation of black athletes, Edwards said they are "educationally ripped off and athletically exploited." The image of dumb, black jocks is cultivated by institutions that bribe athletes with no educational background into helping colleges further their revenue producing sports, he said.

"Dumb jocks are not born, they are created by our educational institutions," Edwards said.

He said the AIDS crises will affect recruitment, medical services and team relationships.

"What is the relationship between team members when one of those team members has tested positive for AIDS?" Edwards asked.

"The combination of class, cultural, institutional and other societal forces coming together at the interface of race and sport, will, over the next five to seven years, make AIDS the greatest threat in sports history," Edwards said.

They show the City Attorney, and now a District Attorney, should be charged with P.C. 182, Sections 2 and 3, which deals with the conspiracy of public officials, police, or, in this case, fire department officials, with conspiring to legally address false charges. But what redress could defendants expect with the very people that should be charged with 182, will decide whether to charge themselves?

It is also true that the police officers who were witnesses in this case did not find it in their civic duty to explain that racists are to be harassed and intimidated anyplace that they may gather in Los Angeles county and under any and all conditions.

It was also not in the civic duties of the fire officers to enlighten the court as to sections 2 and 3 of the L.A. county fire code that permits fires by religious, fraternal, and civic groups. Nor was it their duty to make the court aware that for at least two days prior to the event, many Kagel Canyon residents were busy constructing an ark to escape the floods which came from the rains and not the slightest bit concerned with fire.

The specter of a frantic fire crew rushing to save Kagel Canyon from imminent holocaust after several days of downpour, seems more like a scene from the Keystone cops. Nor did the fire officials volunteer that their superiors would not willingly grant a permit to any White racist group to have a ceremonial or religious burn anywhere in Los Angeles county. Nor did the fire officials comb their files to produce records of felony conspiracy to burn cases that have been filed and gone to court. The reason is simple. There ain't any.

At the time the initial charges in this case were made, which included felonies, then District Attorney Philibosian refused to prosecute. At this point, civic-minded Ira came to the rescue. Mr. Ira Reiner, as usual, expected to get a quick plea bargain and maximize his profile in the 5:00 o'clock news. This did not happen.

Mr. Metzger advised all of the defendants of their constitutional rights and rallied the defendants to circle their constitutional wagons and prepare for a mass-style witch-hunt under color of law.

This is not the first case in which Ira Reiner showed his disregard for the constitution. Several years ago, Mr. Reiner attempted a similar witch-hunt against a group of National Socialists, while acting as an officer of the court. In that case, Mr. Reiner referred to the defendants as "pus." The case was thrown out of court.

The entire thrust of this case has been conspiring to burn waste material. I find it an interesting choice of words, considering the three crosses of Calvary, and this being the Easter season.

The ruse of an illegal burn in the rain would be a joke, if it weren't the real and deadly threat of conspiracy against the Bill of Rights. It is my opinion that the only "legal" -- illegal burn in regards to this case is an attempt to burn the defendants at the stake of the star chamber under the color of law.

It is not the cross lighting on private property the state needs to fear, it is the suppression of basic rights that leads to frustration and violence."
